MANAGEMENT TEAM CHANGE – CAPABILITY & CRUISE MANAGER

Napier Port (NZX.NPH) today announces Capability & Cruise Manager Bruce Lochhead is to leave the company on 24 July 2020 after his role was disestablished. This change is a result of both a process to bring greater alignment for the management team and our strategic direction, as well as our prudent response to the COVID-19 pandemic and broader changes to the cruise industry.

Napier Port Chief Executive Todd Dawson said: “Bruce, who joined Napier Port in 2005, has been a huge asset to our business and has shown immense dedication to the company.”

“In particular, he has been of great value supporting our cruise ship business and guiding the marine and infrastructure teams over the years he has worked at the company. We regret his departure and wish Bruce well for the future.”
